COAST DEFENSE CHANGES.

Affecting Forts at East End of Island Sound.

Important changes in the coast defenses at the easterly entrance to Long Island sound, which include Fort H. G. Wright, Fort Michie and Fort Terry, are being considered. Among the changes suggested are a new battery at Fort Wirght which, exclusive of guns, would cost from $159,000 to $200,000. A board of officers has been appointed to consider modifications of the coast defenses in the New London artillery district and will pay a visit to the Island forts at an early date.

Mad. Gen. Leonard Wood, chief of staff, is the chalrman of the board. John D. Barrette, commandant in this district, is a member. The others are Brig. Gen. C. J. Bailey, Colonel Birnie, Col. S. W. Roesseler and Capt. A. H. Sutherland. Nothing definite has been decided as to the nature of the changes to be made. The board of officers named will inspect the fortifications and will then make such recommendations and will then make such recommendations as may be deemed advisable. These recommendations, together with such appropriation as may be required Important changes in the coast deto carry them out, will then be sub mitted to congress for action.

The fact of the appointment of the board and the possibility of changes to come were known at Fort Wright, but further than that there is nothing that can be said at the present time, it was stated Monday. It was also added that regardless of what recommendations the board might make, nothing could be done until congress valed the present funds. voted the necessary funds.

At the present time there are 12 companies at the island forts, which if all were filled would make a total of 1,200 men. Within a recent period 400 from 300 to 400 men, speaking upor recruits have been sent there to fill up
